

IV TOURNAMENT MARINA SAN MIGUEL & THE PLAYERS GOLF SHOP

The sisters Sara and Mary Beautell, professionals and players of the Ladies European Tour gave free lessons to anyone who wanted to perfect their swing before leaving for the course.

July 17 was the fourth edition of this tournament that has re-emphasized, among other things, for his successful participation gathering 160 players from all around the island. This has been thanks to the sponsorship of the store, located in Las Chafiras, The Players Golf Shop and the harbour Marina San Miguel.

The tournament highlighted by the large deployment of human and resources available through The Players Golf Shop. Among them were the three figures who have benefited from the golf world to advise and challenge to all participants:

The sisters Sara and Mary Beautell, professionals and players of the Ladies European Tour, gave free lessons to anyone who wanted to perfect their swing before leaving for the course: Mary was on the putting green and helped on the short game, while Sara did the long game on the Driving Range.

A new addition to the tournament was “beatthepro” on hole 2. Local professional, James Ferraby Challenged anyone to hit the ball nearer to the Pin on the par 3 second hole. Any successful Challengers were rewarded with new golf material.

The store at Las Chafiras also installed a Custom Fitting tent on the driving range where players could seek advice on all types of golf equipment and even change the grip of their clubs if necessary. The tent was staffed by personnel of the store The Players Golf Shop.

The tournament was played in the Stableford Individual mode with favourable weather conditions throughout the day with a clear sky, some gusts of wind began mid-morning but that never hindered the game.

Lunch was served at the harbour Marina San Miguel where the players and accompanying persons also enjoyed live rock music with the group Sound Chaser (collaboration of The Players Golf Shop).

At the same time, while awaiting the results, all participants were able to compete in a unique test of golf, which has already become a classic of this event: competitors are to hit from the marina to a flag floating in the harbour.

Finally the awards ceremony and raffle consisted of a variety of golf equipment from top brands on the market (shoes, golf bags, travel bags, visors, caps, golf clubs, markers, etc ...) provided by The Players Golf Shop, flight tickets from Tubillete.com, stays at the Hotel Villa Cortes, dinner at the restaurants Garibaldi and El Mirador and Amarilla Golf green fees.

Alejandro Jiménez Grande overall winner of the tournament with 40 points received, in addition to his trophy, a Taylor Made Driver R9 (latest model).

The winner of the first category was David Bendrihem, for the second Fernando García Domingo and Carlos Sodenkamp third and in the ladies category the big winner of the day with 41 points was Monika Kroh. Trophies and prizes were handed to the first three finishers in each category.

The prize for The Longest Drive for men went to Guillermo Moreno Masia and for the ladies, along with The Ball Nearest to the Flag was once again for Monika Kroh. The Ball Nearest to the Flag for men went to Santiago Rivero de la Cruz.
